

Infantry
Camp Travis,
San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Nellie Fleming 8/1/1918

My Dear old wife will drop you a line or two this evening as I have a few spare moments I am abright honey only lonesome for you I have dreamed of home and you the last 3 nights straight and it shure makes me feel blue if I could get a letter I would feel much better but I dont know what in the devil is the matter with the mail I think they are holding it over at the company that few sept. hasent got as much sense as a dog with the fleas but I will bring some of that out of him when I get back if he has kept it there well know a how is he feeling by now any way I dont suppose you are any to happy but honey keep up a stiff lip and dont worry for I will be home some day and then ever thing will be alright how is all the folks and old lady Potts and ever body Else I havent heard a scratch from any body I just went down and got my laundry it was a Franc and 50 centimes that is about 26 cents in our money well baby I dont know very much to write to night I would not of wrote at all but I just couldnt keep from it it is right at supper time and I have to go to school right after supper and I will have to cut this letter short but will

Infantry
Camp Travis,
San Antonio, Texas.

write you a good long letter sun day when I have time and maybe by that time I ~~not~~ will get a letter from you I hope so ~~any~~ I will ~~any~~ way for I am going nuts if I don't get one pretty soon honey have you got your allotment yet. that is sence you sent that check back did ~~minnie~~ send that check back that she got. how are they making it any good or not have you ever saw pig or bessie any more I keep asking you that but I guess you have got a dozen letters on the road telling me all about it but I won't know till I get a letter will I honey well mama how is Ruth and her old man getting a long did he have to register or not I guess old 4 commerce is pretty Dead now by them taken so many out of them. ~~About all there is~~ well I guess there is plenty there to take care of the war widows and old maids. well baby be good I will have to close and go to supper I send all my love with a million hugs and kisses and some thing else to so by baby I remain as ever your true and loving Husband William Fleming Sgt William Fleming co a 358 inf. American Expeditionary Forces

Ja Taylor
2nd Lt
1000